To Whom It May Concern:

Hope all is well? I am publishing my first literary piece of work. This book is entitled "LIFE" Living In A Faith Environment; the biography of my personal journey. This record of my past will give readers an in-depth view of the stages to my success and how I overcame each obstacle faced before me. As an Apostle, Entrepreneur and CEO of the Crim Group Network; my personal interpretation of life's challenges in the leadership position; will be explored and transparent to all listeners and readers alike. The book will encompass and clearly identify the factors of my faith.

The purpose of documenting my life's history is to draw individuals closer to God. By sharing my testimony, it will help people understand how the Lord Jesus can use every mistake made; for a greater purpose and good to motivate others. You have inspired me in some shape, form or fashion; to continue to dream big and become a motivational leader. This is why we are petitioning you and would like to use your name or likeness in the book. We are requesting approval in writing for legal purposes. If you give us the consent, please check the box below with your signature of approval or denial. Thanks in advance for all your prayers and support.

Sincerely
Kenneth L. Crim Sr.
